Encompassing Love

Community candles are lit

Gathering

A call to worship is an invitation to gather
we regulars and we newcomers
we willing and we reluctant
we skeptics and we believers

We hear the invitation to gather
as one community in Christ

A call to worship is an invitation to gratitude
we thankful and we grumpy
we full of heart and we empty of hope
we bereft and we blessed

We hear the invitation to gratitude
as one community in Christ

A call to worship is an invitation to listen
we receptive and we closed off
we eager and we unwilling
we followers and we stragglers

We hear the invitation to listen
as one community in Christ

A call to worship is an invitation to give we carefree and we calculating
we gracious and we cautious
we prosperous and we poor

We hear the invitation to offering
as one community in Christ
to be gathered by God as one body
to be grateful to God as beloved children
to listen to God as willing followers
to give to God as humble stewards
Let us bring our worship.

Song: Great God, your love has called us here
(Words: Brian Wren, tune: Veni Immanuel)

1. Great God, your love has called us here,
as we, by love, for love were made.
Your loving likeness still we bear,
though marred, dishonoured, disobeyed.
We come, with all our heart and mind
your call to hear, your love to find.
2. We come with self-inflicted pains
of broken trust and chosen wrong,
half-free, half-bound by inner chains
by social forces swept along,
by powers and systems close confined,
yet seeking hope for humankind.
3. Great God, in Christ you call our name,
and then receive us as your own,
not through some merit, right or claim,
but by your gracious love alone.
We strain to glimpse your mercy-seat,
and find you kneeling at our feet.

Prayers of who we are

God, source of love, we gather here, in the company of your people that we may know you better and love you with a fresh love,
and know ourselves to be beloved of you.
We come together to challenge one another
to bear the cost and know the joys of love,
to celebrate its presence,
to become love in the service of others,
to become love in the pursuit of justice,
and the resistance of evil.
At the same time we recognize our humanity.
We bear the joy and pain of love.
We see love and loss in one another's eyes,
and by them, to be both convicted and freed.

We are grateful for the many people who give shape and substance to the 9.30am services, including Raelene Telfer and Sandy Boyce who prepared the liturgy, Judy Homburg who played the piano, and the team of musicians, Alison McDougall who led the singing, David Davis on the A-V desk, Allan Forbes who helped with the powerpoint, Robert Born who helps with the set up and those who help with the pack up, the welcomer, those who help with the offering and reading, and all the others who contribute in large and small ways. Chat with one of the Ministers or Denise Griffen if you'd like to be involved.

Offering prayer

We give thanks for all we have received, O God: gifts of love and time, money and abilities. Into these bowls and into this place, we return a portion of these gifts. Bless those who receive them, just as we are blessed in the act of sharing them. Amen.

We recognise and bless the gifts brought to the table, and those which wing their way electronically from our banks to the church's account.

Benediction

Go with a tender and grateful heart, remembering that you may be the only gospel that your neighbour reads this week. So, in all you say and do, spread the grace of god, the love of Jesus and the friendship of the holy spirit. You are blessed by the grace, love and friendship of our Creator, and now you are commissioned to share it by being a blessing in this world. Amen.

God's peace be with you. And also with you.

A sign of peace is exchanged.

Out of our darkness we come to you for light;
out of our sorrows we come to you for joy;
out of our doubts we come to you for assurance;
out of our worries we come to you for peace;
out of our failures we come to you for forgiveness.
We come, conscious of our need for forgiveness
for words spoken which we cannot take back
for actions that have hurt others and harmed ourselves.
for opportunities missed that we now regret
and foolish and wilful decisions that have affected others.

A silence is kept

Open yourself.
Open yourself to the love and presence of God.
Open yourself to God's action within you.
Open yourself to God's action in this place.

It is for our healing.

It is for the healing of relationships.

It is for the healing of God's world.

May love bind us to one another so we might better serve the world.

We are not alone, for we journey together in the spirit of love.

The Lord's Prayer

Loving God, within and around us, we revere you:

We seek to live life as you would want us to do:

with love and respect for all people

and all things in the universe.

May we find each day sufficient for our needs.

And find forgiveness when we do wrong,

just as we forgive those who do wrong to us.

In times of trouble, may we centre our lives in you.

For your being is love,

which comes with strength and with beauty.

Throughout eternity. Amen.
